Issues and Challenges in Health Disparities Research on Older Adults

Conference sponsored by the Center for Biobehavioral and Social Aspects of Health Disparities
At the R. Dave Thomas Executive Conference Center

This conference will highlight cutting edge information about the impact, casual pathways, and implications of health disparities in our older population. The speakers will present on a variety of psychological, social, and biological aspects of health disparities that are particularly challenging in older populations. A broad set of topics will be discussed that include issues on rural elderly, memory and Alzheimer’s Disease, interventions, pain, quality of life, caregiving, disability, self rated health, and neighborhoods.

Featured Speakers Include:

Martha Crowther
Univ. of Alabama

Roland Thorpe
Johns Hopkins Univ.

Mindi Spencer
Univ of South Carolina

Heather Romero
Duke University

Sarah Szanton
Johns Hopkins Univ.

Tamara Baker
Univ. of South Florida

When:  January 18th, 2010  8:00am to 1:00
Where:  R. Dave Thomas Executive Conference Center
One Science Drive
Duke University
Durham, North Carolina 27704

Lunch will be served to the first 30 who preregister.
RSVP to kwhit1@duke.edu  by Jan. 13th